

Dallas Page

Best known by thousands of wrestling fans worldwide as the 3 time heavyweight world champion, Diamond Dallas Page - one of cable TV's most respected wrestling icons, from World Wrestling Entertainment (WWE). Recently retired from the ring, this actor, author, motivational speaker and wrestling superstar has served as a guest speaker at Yale University's Master's Tea and has also starred on Turner Network Television's highest rated original program of all time, "First Daughter". Along with roles in major feature films, "Ready to Rumble" and "Rat Race", the multi-talented Dallas Page has firmly secured his place in pop-culture history. His positive attitude is detailed in his autobiography, "Positively Page", that has been noted to have touched the lives of television and film stars, sports figures and countless fans of all races and ages across the globe. Having devoted fifteen years of his life to facing evil in the ring, Dallas Page is now focused on taking Hollywood by storm.
